~ Awkward sounding; by the time is more commonly used. See Will / Will have (Future Perfect).. By the time expresses that the end-point of one activity (with duration) is the point-of-time for viewing the timing of another activity, "not later than the time" [possibly before and up to X point of time]. The expression is used to compare or estimate relative progress of one activity to another.

The comma ( , ) is a punctuation mark that appears in several variants in different languages. It has the same shape as an apostrophe or single closing quotation mark in many typefaces, but it differs from them in being placed on the baseline of the text. Some typefaces render it as a small line, slightly curved or straight but inclined from the vertical, or with the appearance of a small ...
